

Want to see Public Art on your own?

- Look out the front door of Florida CraftArt, you will see the only mural on the street out of 520 throughout Saint Petersburg.
- Walk down Central Avenue, find a six-foot iron horse on 6th Street block or the enchanted mangrove forest on 4th Street N at the Municipal Services Center and even more.
- Visit the County Court House on 5th Street and 2nd Avenue N. to see the red chairs called "Face the Juror."
- Look at Traffic Signal boxes throughout downtown, sponsored by OZK Bank and painted by local artists.
- Take the Looper and look all around during the 40-minute ride. Almost every park has public art throughout. Get off at the Salvador Dali Museum to see their geodesic glass bubble known as the "enigma."
- Ride the Trolleys for Second Saturday Artwalk and visit any one of the 40-plus venues in artful spaces for the public to view free.
- Take the PSTA Suncoast Trolley along Gulf Blvd. and go to Johns Pass Village. At the boardwalk look for the copper memorial, "Fisherman Lost at Sea," or search for a HUGE alligator on ceiling.
- Pay attention as you drive through any of the six arts districts: Waterfront, Central, Edge, Grand Central, Deuces and Warehouse.
- Download the phone application Pixelstix to see and hear about 40 murals from the SHINE mural festivals. www.stpeteartsalliance.org/explore
- Walk around the Mall at Sundial, pose for pictures at the water fountain with dolphins or across the street at the Millennium Gateway.
- Walk along the waterfront park between the Dali and the Vinoy look for Birds on Beach, eight small copper birdies at random locations.
- Travel through the artist enclave of Historic Kenwood to find painted benches in Seminole Park, banners on the light polls along 1st Avenue N. and 16 ornamental finials on top of their Historic Kenwood street signs.
- Keep your eyes peeled for colorful 6-foot tall dolphins along the acclaimed Dolphin Trail covering Pinellas County. All designed by local artists using such elements as glass, ceramic, fiber art, and decoupage. <https://www.visitstpeteclearwater.com/profile/clearwater-dolphins-trail/463>

Candace Knapp

Mark Aeling

Jennifer Kosharek and Jared "Thirst" Hernandez

Touring

- Sign up for a walking or bike Mural Tour at FloridaCraftArt.org
- Take the Cross Bay Ferry from downtown St. Petersburg by the Vinoy Hotel to the Tampa Bay Convention Center and take the 2.6 mile stroll along the River Walk. www.TheCrossBayFerry.com
- Sign up for a walking tour with Preserve the Burg to learn more about the historical buildings, areas and neighborhoods. <https://preservetheburg.org/>

Public Art Indoors

- Restaurants like 400 Beach, The Lure, Ichicoro, Cassis, Red Mesa and many more have public art pieces as do many of the 41 craft beer venues in Pinellas County. In addition, the Opal Sands Resort in Clearwater Beach has more pieces of Mark Aeling's artwork.
- Go to St. Petersburg Museum of History to see the replica of the Benoit plane which was the first commercial flight from St. Petersburg to Tampa.

Websites Resources

- City of St. Petersburg, Public Art initiatives.
https://www.stpete.org/arts_and_culture/art_collections.php
- Pinellas County Public Art.
https://www.pinellascounty.org/pdf/Public_Art_Brochure.pdf
- Florida Humanities Council, Preserve the Burg and St. Petersburg Museum of History offer a free app to discover 12 Florida Stories.
<https://www.visitflorida.com/en-us/cities/st-petersburg/walking-tour-st-petersburg-florida.html>
Discover other cities in the state.
<https://www.visitflorida.com/en-us/travel-ideas/florida-stories-walking-tours.html>

Florida CraftArt, 501 Central Avenue, St. Petersburg, FL 33701 (727) 821-7391 www.FloridaCraftArt.org