* It is the responsibility of the artist to notify of any changes in above made from previous year

1. Membership

The Holiday Boutique is exclusive to Florida CraftArt member artists. All participating artists must be members in good standing, and all dues must be current during the time of application and for the run of the Boutique. Not a member? Enroll on-line at www.floridaCraftArt.net/membership.

2. Timeline

- The consignment period for the event is from November 5, 2021 – December 29, 2021
- Work is accepted beginning: September 16, 2021
- Delivery and arrival deadline: 5:00 p.m. October 13, 2021
- Unsold work must be picked up by appointment between January 3 – January 6, 2022. Unfortunately, we are unable to hold work after this date due to space constraints and volume of participants. If you are unable to pick up your work, you can let us know what representative you will be sending in your place for your pickup appointment.

3. Shipping and delivery

- Appointments are required for delivery with no exceptions. Please call #727-821-7391 as soon as possible to schedule an appointment.
- Hand-delivered work not picked up by January 6th becomes the property of Florida CraftArt unless arrangements have been made in advance.

- Artists may ship their work at their own expense. Work that is being shipped must be pre-approved by the Gallery Manager. E-mail images to liz@floridacraftart.org before sending anything.
- Unsold can be shipped back and insured at the artist's expense. The gallery has a shipping company that you will pay directly for the packing and shipping back of unsold work. No prepaid labels will be accepted.
- All work must arrive in suitable condition and ready for display.
- Work damaged during shipping will be immediately returned to the artists at the artist's expense. Please pack carefully.

4. Display

At the discretion of Florida CraftArt:

- Artists should not expect to see all their work on display at any given time. This applies to opening night and through the duration of the exhibition.
- Some of any artist's inventory may be in storage at any given time and rotated or returned to the retail floor several times during the run of the event.
- Selections of the artist's work may be displayed at different locations throughout the gallery.
- The location of an artist's work may shift and change as the sale continues and fully at the discretion of Florida CraftArt Gallery staff.

5. Inclusion

- Florida CraftArt, Inc. seeks to encourage professionalism in artists and creative contemporary craft of the highest aesthetic standards.
- All Florida CraftArt member artists shall have the opportunity to jury, but not be guaranteed participation in the Holiday event.
- The staff of Florida CraftArt retains the right to review, exclude and return any work of art that it deems inappropriate or unsalable. Examples of such include, but are not limited to: Poorly crafted, prefabricated, inappropriately priced, deemed offensive, dated, already fully represented or any other unanticipated characteristics at the discretion of the Gallery staff.

6. Insurance

All works will be insured for 55% of the retail value while in the gallery care.

7. Commissions

Florida CraftArt retains a 45% commission and artists are paid 55% of the stated retail value.

8. Payment to the artists

Payment to the artists will be deposited by the end of the month following the sale of item(s). Deposits will be made to the banking account provided to the gallery via the completed ACH form at time provided to Florida CraftArt Gallery at the intake appointment.

9. Promotional Materials

- Artists grant Florida CraftArt the right to use the likeness of their work for marketing, promotional and educational purposes.
- Florida CraftArt is responsible for crediting the artists on printed materials bearing their work.

10. Owner's Clause

The artist warrants that he or she is the creator, and possesses full title of all consigned works, with the FCA gallery as an authorized seller.

11. After Holiday Sale

The artist agrees to participate in the After Holiday sale. All holiday themed items will be 20% off with a 10/10 split between the artist and the gallery. Unfortunately there is no exception with holiday themed items and all ornaments.
