Florida
CraftArt
A STATEWIDE NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION

Showcasing Creativity. Strengthening Community.

Our Exhibition Gallery is a dynamic hub for curated exhibitions and immersive programming. Here, visitors can dive deeper into the world of fine craft art. Our exhibitions feature artists from Florida, across the nation, and around the globe, offering a unique opportunity to be inspired by art innovators from all walks of life and career stages—from emerging talents to Smithsonian-featured artists.

With an average of 10 exhibitions a year, there's always something fresh and exciting to explore. Each show is accompanied by special educational programming designed to engage and enrich your experience.

Member's Show

January 31 - February 28

Florida CraftArt members are invited to submit work to this year's juried Members' Show. This exhibition is a fan favorite showcasing the finest contemporary clay, jewelry, glass, fiber, wood, metal, mixed media, and printmaking. With hundreds of skilled and accomplished artist members across Florida and the U.S., this promises to be an exceptional exhibition.

In 2026, FCA will mark its 75th anniversary by participating in Handwork: Celebrating American Craft, a national initiative commemorating the U.S. Semiquincentennial. FCA is the only Florida organization selected to participate, joining esteemed institutions such as the Smithsonian's Renwick Gallery and the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

In honor of this milestone, FCA will present two back-to-back exhibitions that both celebrate the organization's rich legacy and look boldly toward the future of fine craft in Florida.

The Makers That Made Us

March 11 - April 22

In celebration of our 75th Anniversary, this exhibition honors the visionary artists who have shaped Florida's craft landscape since Florida CraftArt's founding.

Florida Now

May 2 - June 13

Florida NOW is an exhibition of contemporary fine craft by artists from across Florida, highlighting work in traditional materials approached with fresh vision and urgency. The exhibition reflects the vitality of craft practice taking place throughout the state today.

Participating artist: Wendy Bruce, Cheryl Dunnigan, Marty Fielding, Samantha Freeman, Dominique Labauvie, Jillian Mayer, Milton Mizell, Charles Parkhill, Evelyn Politzer, Lauren Shapiro, Rob Stern

Future Form

June 24 - July 29
Open Call

Future Form explores the evolving relationship between craft and technology, showcasing artists who blend time-honored techniques with contemporary tools, digital processes, and emerging technologies.

Through material experimentation and innovative making, the exhibition highlights how tradition and innovation coexist—revealing new forms, methods, and possibilities that are shaping the future of craft.

x1,000

August 8 - September 11
Curated

1000X is an exhibition focused on artists working with duplicable processes such as mold-making and printmaking. Through repetition and variation, the works reveal how ideas shift, accumulate, and take on new meaning when created in multiples

Formed by Fire

September 19 - October 24
Curated

Formed by Fire brings together artists working in traditional metal casting methods and contemporary metal fabrication, emphasizing the transformative role of heat and process. This exhibition explores how material, technique, and force shape both form and meaning, revealing a dynamic balance between control and unpredictability inherent in working with metal.

Sponsorship Opportunities

At Florida CraftArt, we believe in the transformative power of art and the connections it creates within our community. With your sponsorship, we can continue to open doors for artists, offer admission at no cost, and provide educational programming that reaches across generations and backgrounds.

Your generosity ensures that everyone—from budding young artists to lifelong enthusiasts—can experience the magic of art without barriers. As a supporter of Florida CraftArt, you're not just donating; you're investing in a future where art thrives and inspires.

Every tax-deductible contribution is a catalyst for change, fueling our mission to bring art into the lives of thousands. Stand with us and be the spark that drives our vision forward. Your support makes all the difference!
